JAZZMOBILE PRESENTS JEREMY PELT AT BROOKLYN BRIDGE PARK ON TUESDAY, AUGUST 21ST FREE CONCERT ON PIER 1'S HARBOR VIEW LAWN

Brooklyn Bridge Park is happy to announce that it will be hosting its 2nd annual Jazzmobile program, featuring one of the great jazz trumpeters on the scene today, Jeremy Pelt. The concert will take place at 7 pm on August 21st at the Harbor View Lawn at Pier 1.

"I am thrilled to welcome Jazzmobile back for its second season at Brooklyn Bridge Park," said Regina Myer, President of Brooklyn Bridge Park. "Jazzmobile presents fantastic outdoor summer concerts around the city and we are proud to be hosting acclaimed jazz trumpeter Jeremy Pelt as their offering this year."

Robin Bell-Stevens, President and CEO of Jazzmobile, Inc. stated "We are pleased to have been once again invited by Brooklyn Bridge Park Board Member and artist, Danny Simmons, to bring our annual Summerfest to this magnificent park. The setting is idyllic and the audience of Brooklynites and other New Yorkers demonstrate that Jazz music is enjoyed by everyone! We look forward to a long partnership."

Pelt is a California native, but came to New York in 1998 after graduating from Berklee College of Music with a B.A. in professional music. Since then he has played with numerous top jazz artists from Ravi Coltrane to The Duke Ellington Big Band and was named the Rising Star on the Trumpet five years in a row. He is also an instructor at the renowned Jazzmobile Saturday Jazz Workshop.

Currently touring with his own group, the "Jeremy Pelt Quintet", he also plays in the "Lewis Nash Septet" and the "Cannonball Adderley Legacy Band" featuring Louis Hayes. Pelt has recorded several albums throughout his career, including his most recent, "Soul."
